

Forwarded to Foreign Destination

Detroit, Mi. to Cambridge, Ma., July 17, 1900

Via New York & Chicago R.P.O., July 17, 1900

Received Cambridge Station, Boston, Ma., July 18, 1900

Special Delivery attempted with manuscript notes on rear

Forwarded to Liverpool, England, July 30, 1900

Foreign Destination

Backbay Station, Boston, Ma. to London, England, Dec. 26, 1895

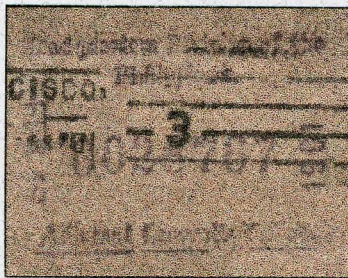

Addressed to J.F. Bayard (U.S. Senator), United States Embassy

Backstamped London, England, Jan. 5, 1896

Foreign Destination

Unpaid regular postage and double charged (40 pfennig) 'T' (due) marking in Germany where no credit was allowed for special service stamp and service not provided

Receiving backstamp

Addressed to General Mac Arthur in Manila, Philippines, carried via R.P.O.
Received in Philippines at H.Q. Adjutant General's Office on February 16, 1901

Foreign Destination

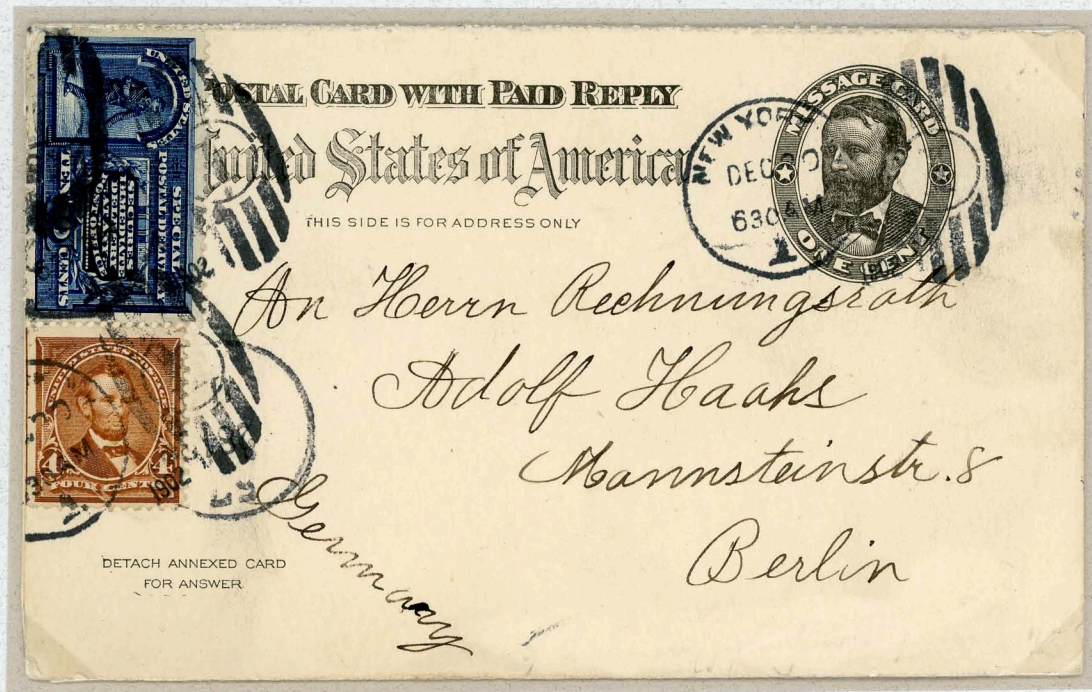

Cleveland, Oh. to Bordeaux, France, December 3, 1902
Shortpaid with New York 'T' due marking, Special Delivery service not provided in France

Bryn Mawr, Pa. to Paris, France, forwarded to Cannes, France, December 12, 1902, short paid three cents
Postage due paid at double rate (U.S. to France) and forwarding fee (Paris to Cannes) 60 centimes total

Foreign Destination

Reply Postal Card
Additional 4¢ postage to meet 5¢ U.P.U. first class rate to Germany

Advertising cover to Coburg, Germany at 5¢ U.P.U. single weight first class rate

Foreign Destination

Hartford, Ct. to Forest Hill S.E., November 1, 1899
 Transit through New York and London, forwarded to South Hampton, England
 Service not available in England and not provided

Double rate, missed ship 'Unitria' and marked 'TOO LATE' with fancy cross cancel

Military Origin
Spanish American War

Hand carried to Key West, Fl. from a military officer on 'field maneuvers' in Cuba
Only recorded example

Foreign Origin

Havana, Cuba to New York, N.Y., March 29, 1899
Postage of 5c reflects UPU rate for first class surface mail

Ship Origin

Via German Seapost, domestic postage underpaid, assessed 10 cents

Foreign Origin

Earliest reported use from Canada, June 27, 1896 (prior to informal cross border agreement)
Cleveland, Oh. receiving cancel dated June 30, 1896

Foreign Origin

La Guaira,
Venezuela to Philadelphia, Pa,
Special Delivery
service missed

La Paz, Baja
California, Mexico
to New York, N.Y., Oct. 25, 1901
Received in New York Nov. 4, 1901
and Special Delivery stamp added upon forwarding

Mailed from Curacao via paquetbot, March 1901
Canceled in N.Y., Special Delivery failed due to office 'Closed'