I say this, because this was the 'Taylor' type and from what you list, your father must have been given the contents of a 'Taylor Packet'! The counterfeits being his, too. I guess.

I am most intrigued by the BUCKS you mention with a solid value figure unshaded. Sounds like a new type altogether. In my opinion I would advise you to keep the whole 68 together, especially if they are a 'Taylor Packet'. However if you do ever consider breaking them up, I'd like first chance of the unlisted BUCKS. I'd give you a dollar bill for that right away! ~~for~~ ^{and} replace it with another 'Taylor')!

Thanks again for writing,

Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Harry F Rooke.
