The surcharge on this letter must be collected before delivery. Refusal on the part of the person to whom the article is now directed, to pay the amount involved, renders him liable to a penalty of Forty Shillings. In case of such refusal, the letters should be forwarded without delay to the Head Office with a report of the matter.

To facilitate the return of undelivered letters, without their being opened, business people and others concerned should endorse the covers of all correspondence posted by them with a special request for its return in the event of its remaining undelivered at the expiration of a specified period, which must not be less than seven days. In each case the name and full address of the sender should be appended to the request.

Dear Mother

I expect you will have received my letter when you get this. Where the cross is is the Village Pump. One night (Wednesday) I tied all the boys hairs up there were about seven and I was the mother and I made them say nursery rhymes. Oh! it was funny I nearly died with laughing.

Dear Miss Hayward
I have been so busy
that I have not had time to write you before. I am well
and hope these few
lines will find you
the same. I have not much news to
write at present.
The weather is very hot here now
and I am glad to hear that you are well. I hope you will have a very pleasant trip to Australia. I will write again when I have more news
to tell you.

 Postage dues used to confirm payment for money order fees in Whitton, NSW.
 As the completed money order had to be forwarded and processed by the payee, the back of a blank money order form was used to attach and cancel the postage due stamps used for payment of the order (See below). While payment of money order charges constituted an unusual use of postage due stamps, they were used occasionally for this purpose.
