All a-board for the World's Fair. Arrived safe. Exposition is more than cak-a, it is ash-tonishing, you cedar, sights of your life. The Pike is fir-straight, more than a pear of peaches and the spiclers don't bark like a tree. Board and (s)lumber at poplar prices, no need to pine for what you plank down. Birch-ance the last great show for many years. More fun than the beech. I wood spruce up and come. You walnut regret it. Butternut delay. Sincerely,

Hickory Hemlock

Dear Katie:
I left the party on Tuesday and arrived here late last night after a rather hot trip. I go on to Dan Benier on Saturday by boat through Puget Sound. I hear the ride is very fine. I am well and enjoying myself. The exposition though rather small is beautifully situated. I leave Vancouver on Sunday. Love, C. E. H.

No. 103. PRIDE OF THE NAVIES, JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION, 1907. Emblematic of the gathering of war vessels of the Nations of the World on the historic waters of Hampton Roads, Virginia. In all respects, the most remarkable and interesting marine spectacle that has ever been, and, in all probability, ever will be seen.
