"BE JUST, AND FEAR NOT."

"We shall refuse, to the day of our death, to go into a Southern Confederacy, or to agree that honor, patriotism, or a love of country, influenced the vile, hypocritical, corrupt, and insincere leaders who have plunged the Cotton States into this revolution."

Uncle Sam. That cussed varmint has broke out of the box again. Put it back, Scott, and nail it down fast; we can't have the critter runnin' over the farm.

Scott. If it makes no particular difference to you, I should like to experiment with this piece of string; I've an idea we can dispense with the box altogether!

"To the efficacy and permanency of your Union a government for the whole is indispensable. No alliances, however strict, between the parts can be an adequate substitute; * * It is, indeed, little else than a name, where the government is too feeble to withstand the enterprises of faction, to confine each member of the society within the limits prescribed by the laws, and to maintain all in the secure and tranquil enjoyment of the rights of person and property."—Extract from
