Ship Criterion

September 29, 1818. Letter datelined at Brighton, England where it was directionally endorsed: Criterion/via New York. It was docketed on the reverse: London 30th Sept. Criterion was a 462 ton ship built 1811 at Portland, District of Maine. She was registered at New York June 13, 1812 (Holdcamper List.) She ran regularly between New York and London.

Note that the letter was addressed to "Hallowell, Maine, Massachusetts." At that time Maine was a District of Massachusetts. Maine became a separate state in 1820.

SHIP

December 1, 1818. WOOD'S NEW-YORK Sale Report and Price Current, Dec. 12, 1818: Arrived Dec. 2, Ship Criterion, Avery, London.

Letter was rated, Act of April 9, 1816 (effective May 1, 1816) for a single letter going 150-400 miles, N.Y. to Hallowell, of 18½¢ + 2¢ Ship Letter charge = 20½¢ due.

Further notes on Criterion's movements appear in WOOD'S Sale Report Jan. 2, 1819: Vessels advertized for foreign ports: SHIP CRITERION bound for London to sail the 5th inst., apply to E. Moorwood.

She was finally cleared for London January 13, 1819.
