

Adrien de Gerlache Belgian Antarctic expedition (1897-99)

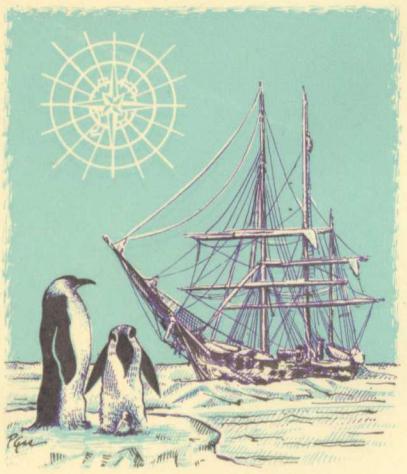

Baron Adrian Victor Joseph de Gerlache de Gomery (1866-1934) was an officer in the Belgian Royal Navy who led the Belgian Antarctic expedition (1897-99).

Gaston de Gerlache (1919-2006) was the son of Adrien de Gerlache and followed in the tracks of his father by leading the second Belgian expedition to Antarctica in 1957-8, 60 years after his father led the 1897/8 "Belgian Antarctic Expedition" with the ship "Belgica".

Forty years later in 1998, on the 100th Anniversary of the Expedition, Baron Gaston de Gerlache with his wife and other Antarctic tourists followed the steps of Adrien de Gerlache and visited several different locations around the Antarctica Peninsula.

This set of 24 color photos shows several Chilean and Argentine Antarctic bases: Deception Island, Melchior base, Gonzalez Videla, Arctowski, Alte. Brown, etc. and the Belgian 1984 expedition base camp at Brabant Island.

This set of photos is very rare and there are very few copies. Several of the postal history covers on the annexed lot are from Argentine, Chilean and other countries Antarctic stations.
