

Chicago, Ill., June 15th, 1887.

Kind Friend:--I have this day taken the liberty of mailing you a copy of the "Unspeakable Gift."

If you find it of sufficient blessing to you to desire to remit the cost of 30 cents, it will aid me in sending to others, since all I desire is to have the TRUTH spread abroad, as revealed in His words.

Please keep, read, and loan it to others whether you feel like sending the 30 cents or not, and if you want other copies mailed I shall be glad to do it for you at the cost, mail prepaid, named above. Yours in love,

JOHN L. ATWATER, 15 Washington St.
