5c Federal Envelope sent Guadalajara 17 March 1914 to Iguala (not delivered).

During most of March, Iguala was isolated by Zapatists and on April 8 the city fell.

* * *

Two days after Iguala was taken, Zapata forces had pushed on to take Taxco. On April 11, Acapulco, many miles to the south, was also occupied. Unfortunately, there are no "Oficina Clausurada" or "Interrumpida de Comunicacion" covers known to or from Taxco in this period and since Acapulco's deliveries of mail by steamship probably continued after the take over, it is unlikely that there would have been any.
