The Postcard Of Mount Everest Expedition In 1924

Yatung, Tibet (Aug. 1, 1924) To Singapore

Yatung-Tibet
Type B1
Aug. 1, 1924

tion 1924.

The Huston-Mount Everest Flight Cover

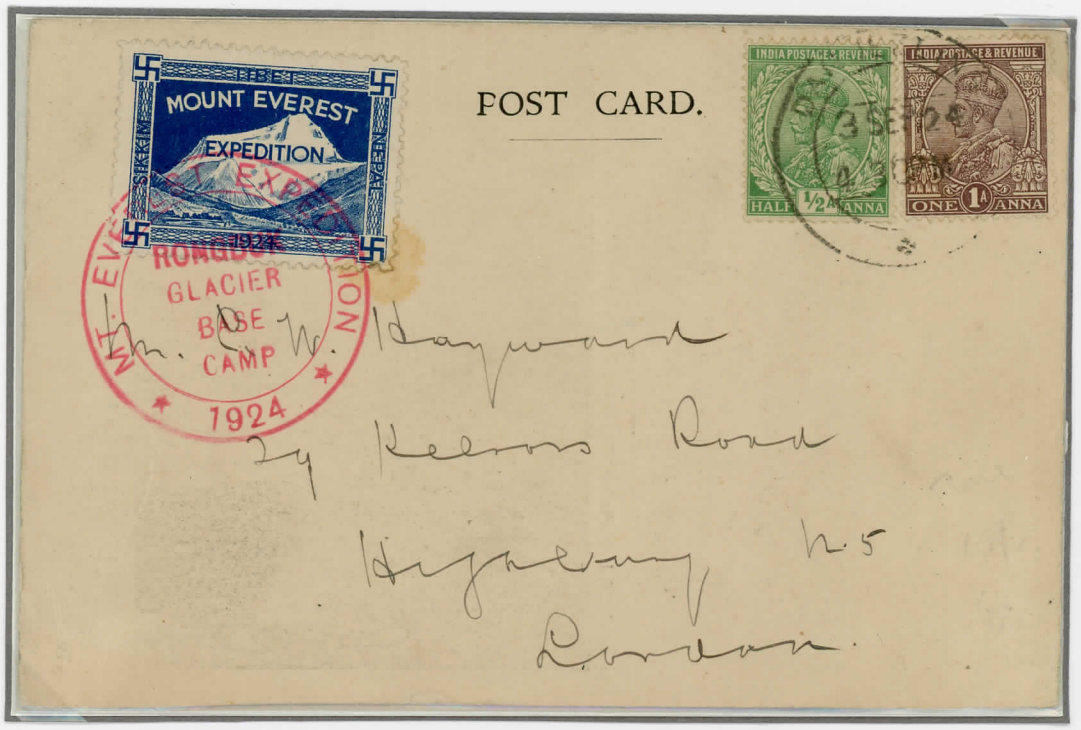
Purnea (April 8, 1933) To Calcutta, India

Purnea,
India
Apr. 8,
1933

This April 7, 1933 survey flight carried souvenir mail on behalf of the India Air Mail Society, and only 87 covers were flown. The cover bears the large violet handstamp of the expedition label.

The Postcard Of Mount Everest Expedition In 1924

Darjeeling (Sept. 3, 1924) To London



Darjeeling
Type B8
Sept. 3,
1924

The red commemorative type E2 of Mount Everest Expedition 1924 was cancelled on stamp.

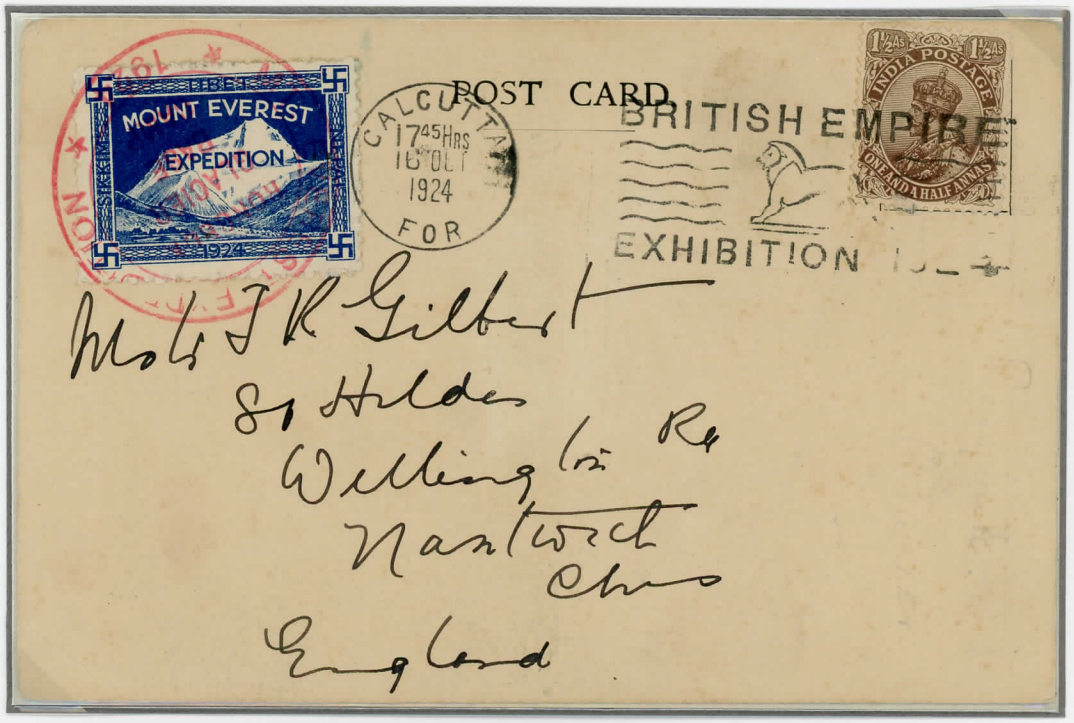
Darjeeling (Aug. 6, 1924) To Scotland

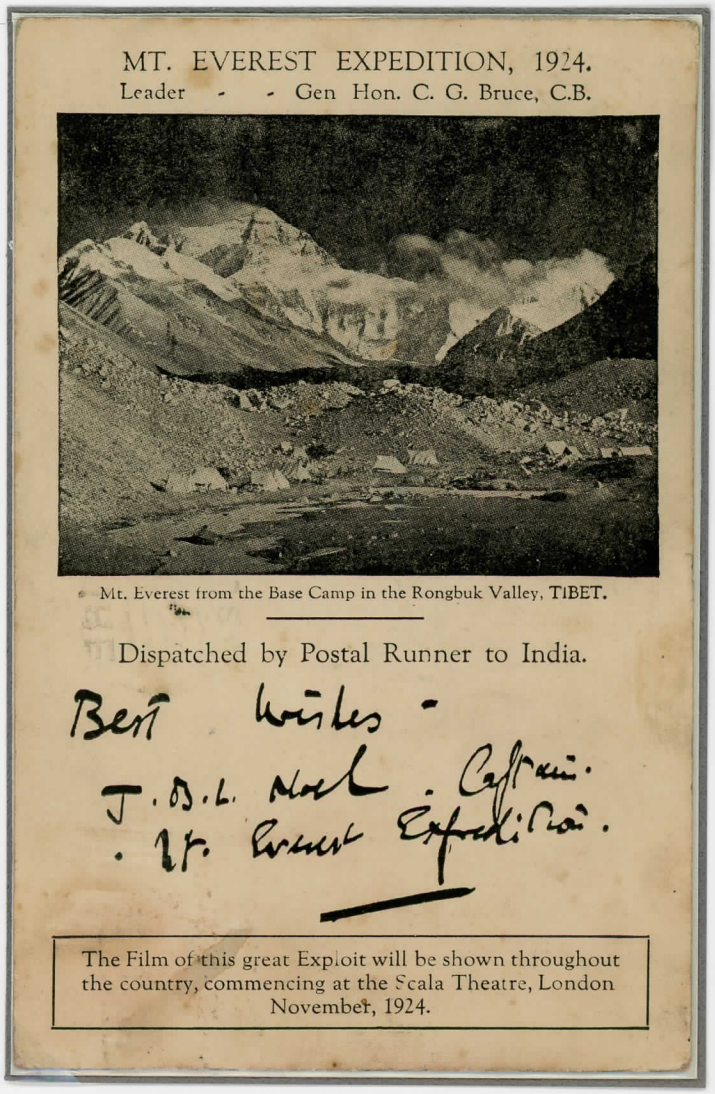
Darjeeling
Type B8
Aug. 6,
1924

The postcard was offseted print.

The Postcard Of Mount Everest Expedition In 1924

Expedition Red Cancel 1924, Thru Calcutta (Oct. 16, 1924) To England





The red commemorative cancel type E2 reads "Mount Everest Expedition 1924, Rongbuk Glacier / Base Camp", as with this card, and was used in conjunction with the Everest label to advertise the forthcoming motion picture of the climb.

The reverse of the Everest card, photo by Captain Noel printed, re-produced the greeting and signature, and a view of Mount Everest.

Mount Everest Expedition Stamp In 1924

It was Captain Noel who had been on the 1922 Expedition, was the one who thought of a special stamp for the expedition. June 1924 was printed the stamps show the Base Camp, Rongbuk Glacier and Everest itself taken from a photograph. In the border of the stamp is the names of the three countries associated with the expedition- Sikkim, Nepal, Tibet, with the year 1924 in the bottom border. There is no value expressed, and in each corner is a Swastika.

In June 1924 the leaders Gen Hon and G. Bruce explored the MT. Everest Expedition again, particularly printed this stamp and the postcard.

Light Blue With Gummed

Blue Without Gummed

Dark Blue With Gummed