#29, 2c Red on thin yellowish wove paper, a gem mint bottom margin single which has eye-arresting bright color, sumptuous margins on all sides, outstanding impression and is "post office" fresh in all respects, o.g., n.h., extremely fine. (photo)

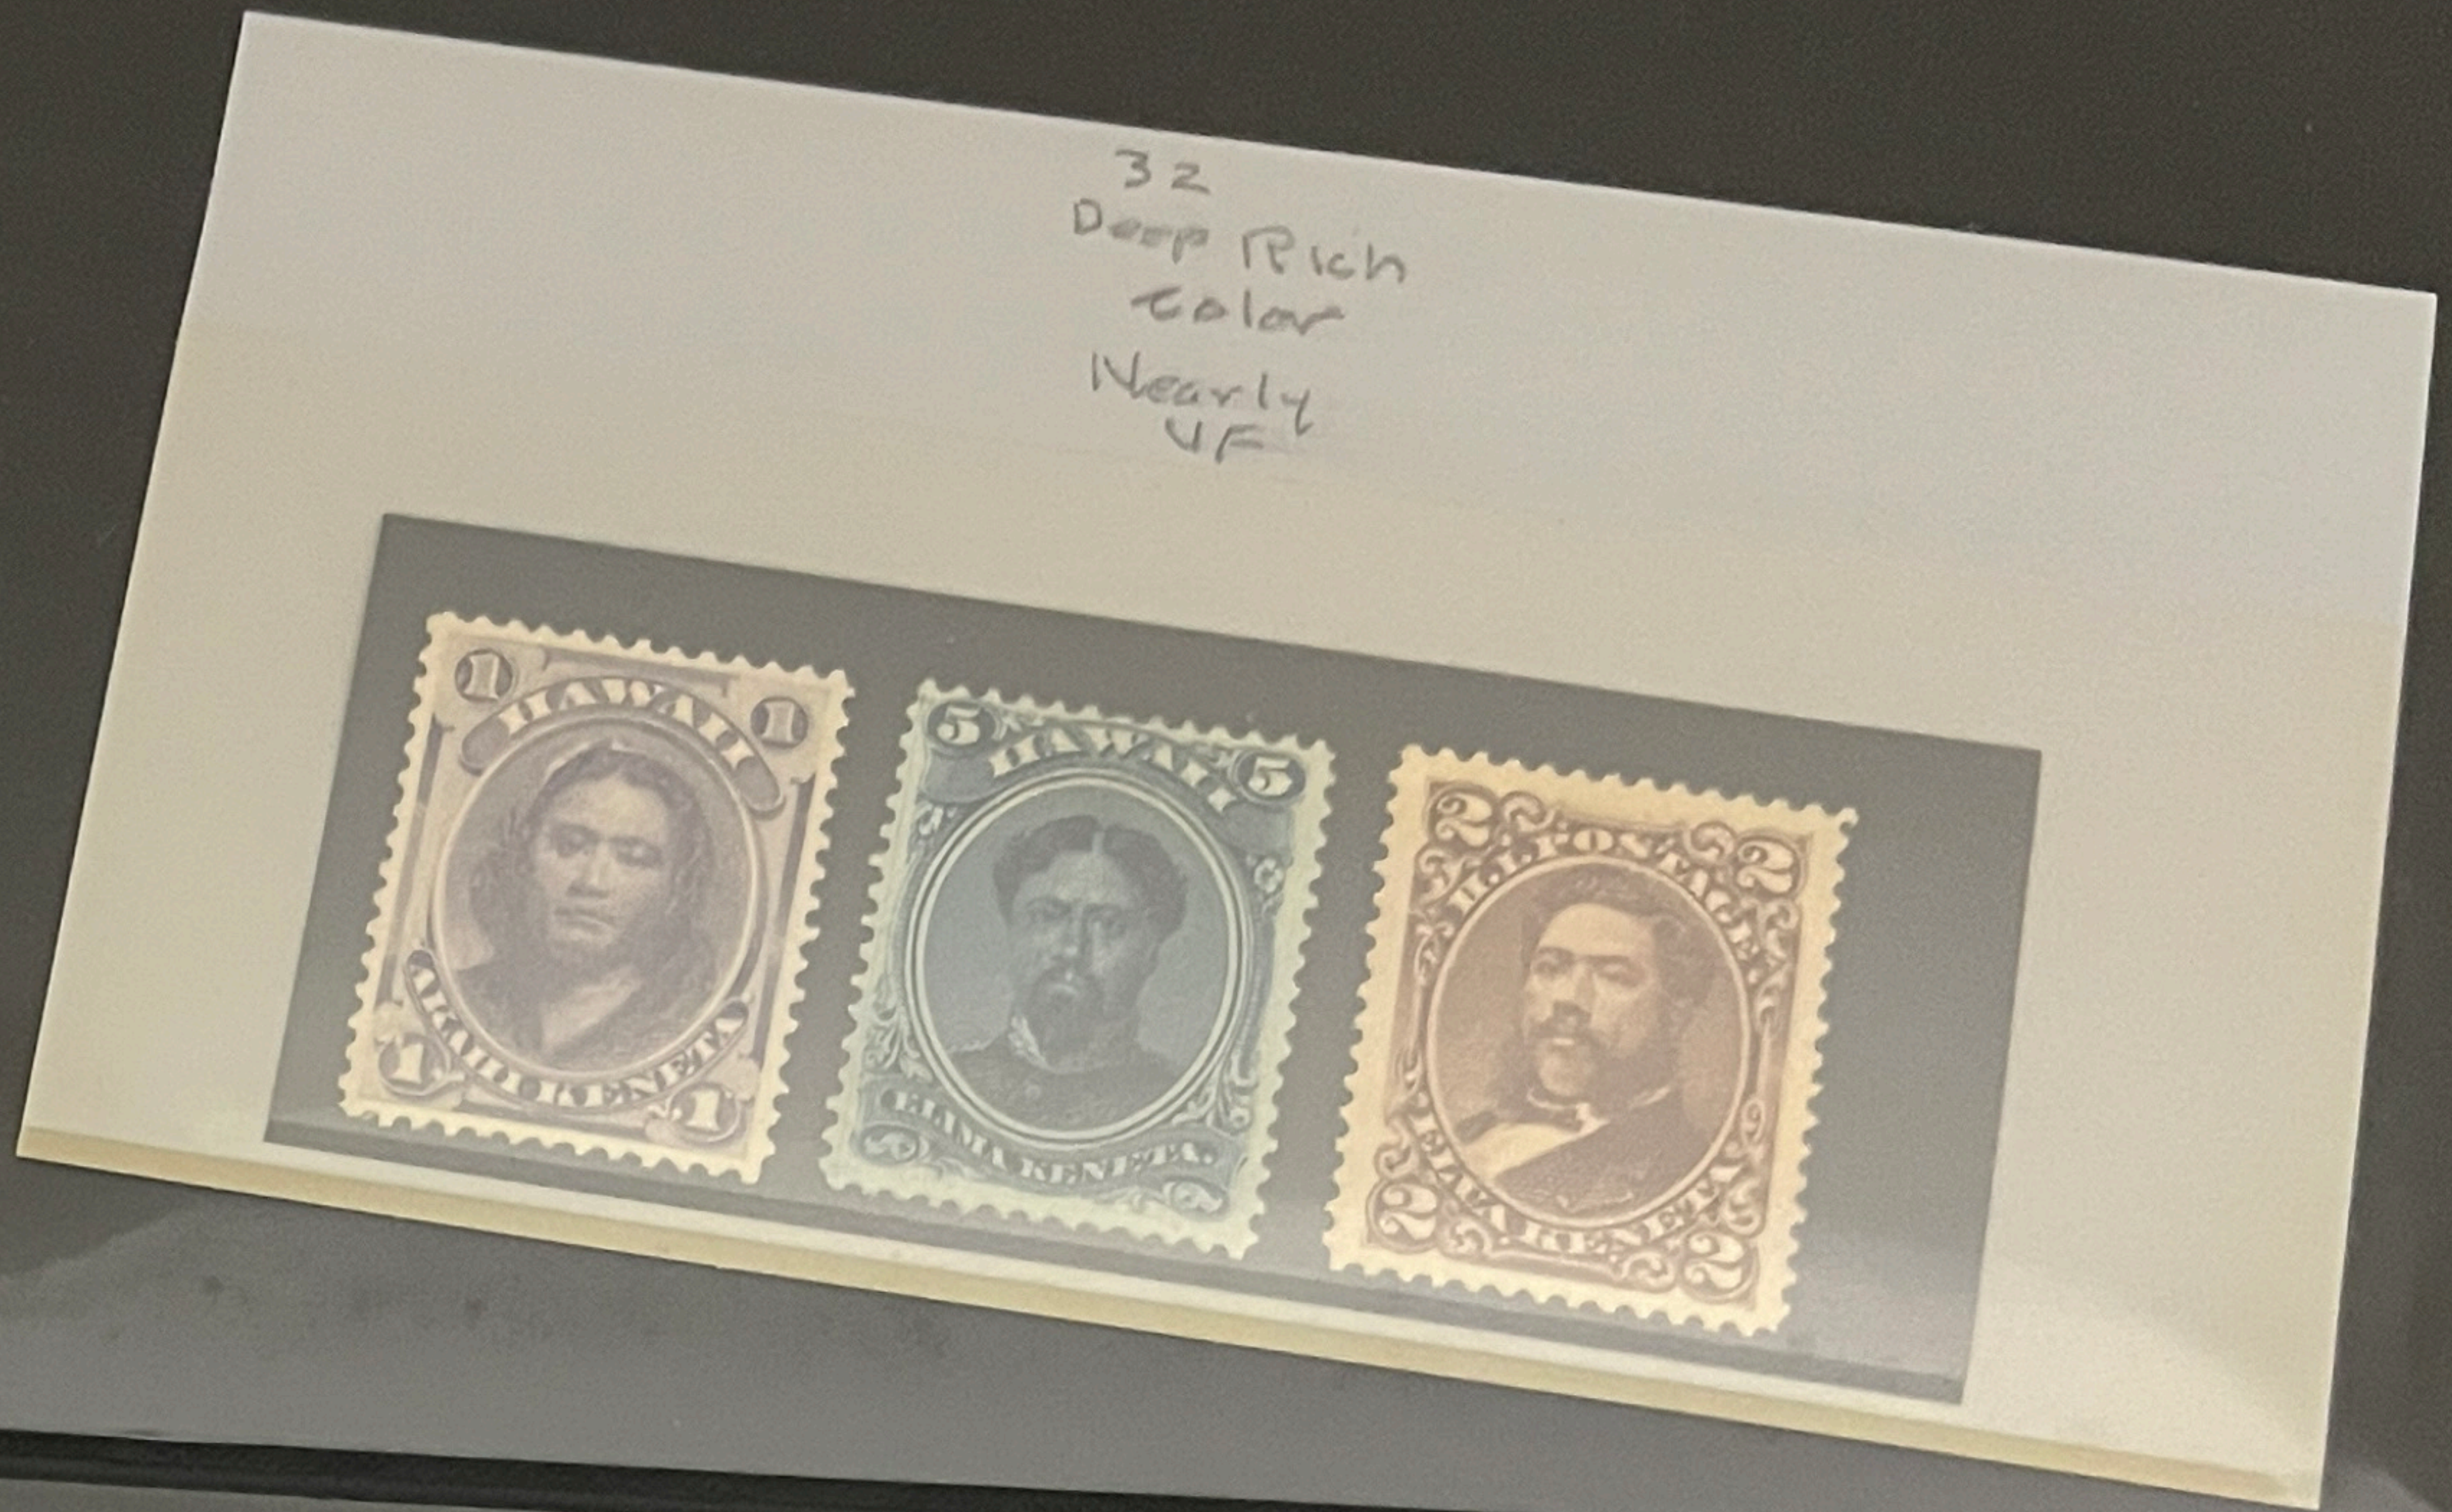

#30, 30a, 30b, 1c Mauve, Violet, Purple, a select group of blocks of four of the 1c issue showing all three issued colors; the mauve block has o.g. and is never hinged, extremely fine, the other two have full o.g. and are very fine.

#30b, 1c Violet, a spectacularly fresh and choice single which has brilliant color, outstanding centering, o.g., n.h., extremely fine; a pristine gem. (photo)

#35, 2c Brown, a magnificent mint single of a relatively common stamp in not-so-common condition, possessing outstanding centering amid huge jumbo margins, brilliantly fresh, with rich luxuriant color, full intact perforations, o.g., extremely fine gem for the most meticulous collector.

se, a spectacular mint single of the 1882 American Bank Note Co. issue, that was found after a search of over twenty years, which has no margins and perfectly centered within these huge borders, slightly hinged, extremely fine gem. (photo)
