Dear Cousin Sumner

Yours of the 22nd last month was duly received, and read with much pleasure.
It showed you had not forgotten me, which I had almost begun to fear was the case. I have heard the sad news of Uncle Cyrenus's death, and it made me feel very bad I assure you. How does it affect poor old Grand Mother? I don't know but she will out live them all, Poor old Lady

Cousin Henry

I received your letter last Tuesday was very glad to hear from you hope you will continue to write often.

I have been looking every day for that turkey that you was to send me but have not seen anything of the kind yet

Now about that fur business I have not been to Boston have had no good chance to send but I went to Lawrence last evening and saw the largest fur dealer there he says he will pay as much for your furs as anyone here or in Boston he seems to be very anxious to buy them. his name is Clogston I
