CIRCULAR.

Sr. CLAIRSVILLE, June 23, 1865.

Gentlemen: We would suggest, if you have not already done so, that you at once appoint sub-Committees for each School District to attend to collecting articles for the tables on the coming 4th of July.

We think you should also have sub-committees caution our friends against providing an undue proportion of what are called "sweetmeats." Of course we want them, along with the "substantials," but not in an undue proportion. The good ladies in every neighborhood, who never tire in good works, will understand, probably, better than we could tell you what is needed.

By order of the Ex. Com.
