And it shall and may be lawful for the said vessel in her voyage to proceed and sail to, touch and stay at any ports or places, if thereunto obliged by stress of weather, or other unavoidable accident, without prejudice to this insurance. The said vessel, tackle, &c. for so much as concerns the assured, by agreement between the assured and assurers in this Policy, are and shall be valued Two Thousand Dollars without any further account to be given by the assured to the assurers, or any of them for the same.

Touching the adventures and perils which the New-York Insurance Company is contented to bear, and takes upon itself in this voyage, they are, of the seas, men of war, fire, enemies, pirates, rovers, thieves, jettisons, letters of mart and counter mart, surprisals, takings at sea, arrests, restraints and detainments, of all kings, princes or people, of what nation, condition or quality soever, baratry of the master and mariners, and all other perils, losses and misfortunes that have or shall come to the hurt, detriment or damage of the said vessel or any part thereof. And in case of any loss or misfortune, it shall be lawful and necessary, to and for the assured, his factors, servants, and assigns, to sue, labor and travel in and about the defence, safeguard and recovery of the said vessel, or any part thereof, without prejudice to this insurance; to the charges whereof, the said Insurance Company will contribute according to the rate and quantity of the sum herein insured; and we the assurers, the New-York Insurance Company aforesaid, do bind ourselves and our successors the said assured, in the true performance of the premises; the consideration for this insurance having been paid to the President in behalf of the said Insurance Company, by the assured or his assigns, at and after the rate of

Seventeen and a half per cent

And in case of loss, the assured is to abate two per cent. and such loss to be paid in thirty days after proof thereof; (the amount of the note given for the premium, if unpaid, be deducted) but no partial loss or particular average, shall in any case be paid unless amounting to five per cent. And it is mutually agreed, That if any dispute shall arise, to a loss on this policy, it shall be referred to two persons, one to be chosen by the assured, the other by the President of the New-York Insurance Company; which two persons have power to adjust the same; but in case they cannot agree, then those two persons shall chuse a third, and two of them agreeing, their determination shall be obligatory on both parties. Provided always, and it is hereby further agreed, That if the said assured shall have made any other assurance upon the premises aforesaid, prior in date to this policy, then the said New-York Insurance Company shall be answerable only for so much as the amount of such prior assurance may be deficient towards fully covering the premises assured; and the said New-York Insurance Company shall return the premium upon so much of the sum by them assured as they shall be by such prior assurance exonerated. And that in case of any insurance upon the said premises subsequent in date to this policy, the said New-York Insurance Company shall nevertheless be answerable for the full amount of the sum by them subscribed hereto, without right to claim contribution from such subsequent assurers, and shall accordingly be entitled to retain the premium by them received in the same manner as if no such subsequent assurance had been made. It is also agreed, That the property be warranted by the assured free from any charge, damage or loss that may arise in consequence of a seizure or detention, for or on account of any illicit or prohibited trade, or any trade in articles contraband of war.

In Witness whereof, the President of the said New-York Insurance Company, hath hereunto subscribed his name and the sum insured, and caused the same to be attested by the Secretary of the said Company, in New-York, the Thirtieth day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety Eight

If the voyage aforesaid shall have been begun, and shall have terminated before the date of this Policy, then there shall be no return of premium on account of such part of the voyage.

In all cases of return of premium, in whole or in part, one half per cent. upon the sum insured is to be retained by the assurers.
